

Fox On The Run

Tony Hazzard

Chorus

G She walks through the corn leading down to the river
Am Her hair shone like gold in the hot mornin' sun
G She took all the love that a poor boy could give her
Am And left me to die like a fox on the run
C Like a fox, (like a fox, like a fox, like a fox) on the run G

C Out here everybody knows the reason for the fall
C When woman tempted me down in paradise hall
C This woman tempted me then she took me for a ride
C But like a lonely fox, boys I need a place to hide

Chorus

G She walks through the corn leading down to the river
Am Her hair shone like gold in the hot mornin' sun
G She took all the love that a poor boy could give her
Am And left me to die like a fox on the run
C Like a fox, (like a fox, like a fox, like a fox) on the run G

Chorus

G She walks through the corn leading down to the river
Am Her hair shone like gold in the hot mornin' sun
G She took all the love that a poor boy could give her

Am      D      C      G
 And left me to die like a fox on the run
C      G
 Like a fox, (like a fox, like a fox, like a fox) on the run

C      G      D      G
 We'll drink a glass of wine boys to fortify our souls
C      G      A7      D
 We'll talk about the world and friends we used to know
C      G      D      G
 I see a string of girls who have put me on the floor
C      G      D      G
 The game is nearly over and the hounds are at my door

Chorus

G      D      Am      C
 She walks through the corn leading down to the river
Am      D      C      G
 Her hair shone like gold in the hot mornin' sun
G      D      Am      C
 She took all the love that a poor boy could give her
Am      D      C      G
 And left me to die like a fox on the run
C      G
 Like a fox, (like a fox, like a fox, like a fox)      on the run
