Sadie's Song

Adrienne Young

Gm F Gm F

Gm F Pretty boy, my faithless fallen angel took me completely in his arms in his eyes, I saw Eden's garden but the serpent lay hidden in his charms
D# A#
well, I used to like to sing with the sunlight in my hair
D# D7
till that fateful day when I followed him there

D# A#
he said, climb, little Sadie, higher
F Gm
spread them downy wings and fly
D# A#
you will find your crown of gilded glory next to mine
F D7
climb, little Sadie, climb

Gm F icy winds up on Lookout Mountain chilled two bodies to the bone
F
but for that man, I did gladly lay down my back Gm
upon a bed of stone
D# A#
well, I used to like to sing with the sunlight in my hair
D# D7
till that fateful day when I followed him there

D# A#
he said, climb, little Sadie, higher
F Gm
spread them downy wings and fly
D# A#
you will find your crown of gilded glory next to mine

Gm F
something's wrong, I heard my voices whisper, I heard 'em whisper something's wrong Gm a single shot, he said, "Fare thee well, Sadie" F the round was cold, my breath was gone Gm well, I used to like to sing with the sunlight in my hair D# A# till that fateful day when I followed him there D# D7

D# A#
he said, climb, little Sadie, higher
F Gm
spread them downy wings and fly
you will find your crown of gilded glory next to mine D# A# F D7
climb, little Sadie, climb

D# A#
he said, climb, little Sadie, higher
F Gm
spread them downy wings and fly
you will find your crown of gilded glory next to mine D# A# F D7
climb, little Sadie, climb

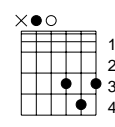

climb, little Sadie,
girl, wontcha climb
climb, little Sadie,
girl, wontcha climb
